

R. B. Madkholkar Mahavidyalaya, Chandgad
“Core Values”

Vision, Mission, Core Values, Goals, Aims and Objectives -

Our college has put forth a great vision. The aims and objectives of our college are reflected in the motto of our Institute — “तपसा प्राप्यते यशः” i.e. (Diligence Yield Success).

Vision:

“To provide quality higher education catering the needs of society, as per the changing global trends in recent times”

Mission:

“To build the “New India” in which every individual have knowledge, character, sense of service and dedication to contribute comprehensive development of the region, the Nation and the humanity at large.”

Core values:

- Quest for excellence.
- Respect to human values.
- Promotion to research and scientific temperament.
- Environment consciousness.
- Knowledge and skills for livelihood.
- Cope up with modern ideas and technology.

Goals:

- To provide access to higher education to all eligible students in rural areas.
 - To disseminate the knowledge to students and society.
 - To develop skills among the students.
 - To inculcate discipline and moral values among the students.
 - To develop global competence among the students.
 - To inculcate the scientific temper.
 - To empower and develop women through education.
 - To develop a college as a social development center.
 - To encourage the use of information technology.
-

R. B. Madkholkar Mahavidyalaya, Chandgad
“Core Values”

Aims and Objectives:

1. To render valuable service in the field of education by providing the facilities of higher education to the students of nearby villages.
 2. To propagate the cause of education and to disseminate the knowledge among the students.
 3. To train the students in various skills for the all round development of their personalities.
 4. To inculcate moral values and discipline in students.
 5. To educate women for their emancipation and progress.
 6. To keep pace with the changing educational social and global scenario.
 7. To promote the use of technology and introduce ICT's specially.
 8. To make efforts to develop the college as the center for community development.
 9. To aim at the cultural development of villages through education.
-